ERIE METROPARKS LEGACY TREES PROGRAM

What is Erie MetroParks' Legacy Trees Program ?

Erie MetroParks' Legacy Trees Program has been established to maintain and improve the natural environment at different MetroParks locations through new and renewal plantings of trees and tree care. Twice a year, in the spring and fall, trees are purchased and planted where they are needed most.

What will Erie MetroParks' Legacy Trees Program accomplish?

Erie MetroParks will plant trees in key areas throughout the various park properties providing assurance that natural areas, sweeping vistas and landscape features will be created and preserved for the future.

Why is the Erie MetroParks' Legacy Trees Program Important Today?

These funds are as important today as they will be in the future. Damage occurs to trees throughout the years and these trees need replacements and additions. Due to natural attrition, new plantings are continually being made throughout the MetroParks. In addition to the labor required for planting, there is fertilizing, spraying, and pruning to be completed. To guarantee this maintenance and continually improve the tree-planting program, your help is needed.

Think of your contribution to Erie MetroParks' Legacy Trees Program, whether a memorial, tribute or general gift, as a lasting token of celebration. Your gift, no matter how modest, will assure that future generations will enjoy the trees we plant today. Cash, securities or property can all provide the basis for income for this important work.

A book of Donors is maintained at the Erie MetroParks Maple Grove Center. It lists those who contribute, notes, and memorial and tribute gifts.
